Anners or Mr. P. H. Germanden.—Str. P. H. Ostrander, leader of Trinity Church choir, and assaged the grand opneert which came off last Wedineday evening, at Williards' Hall, was sent to paid by Justice Bates a few hours before the concert took pince, on the charge of forfeiting his ball. It seems that in July last he was arrested, at the instance of F. L. Harvey, of the firm of Harvey, Colina & Co., for awinding said firm out of $125, but was released on giving bonds to the amount of $200 to appear for further, hearing. When the time for his appearance arrives, and he did not come, the gestleman who was security immediately procured his rearrest. Ostrander being unable to obtain unther ball was committed to jail by Justice Bates, to await his trial. Other charges, of like nature, have also neen preferred against him.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, Feb. 2, 1968.
SIT: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of a resolution of the Senate of the 24th Instant, requesting the Secretary of the Treasury "to communicate to the Senate the smount of revenue, if any, which has accreded to the United States, since the passage of the act of March 2, 1861, at its various ports of entry from the duty on printing paper; and whether; in his opinious, a reduction of the duty on printing paper would tend to increase the public revenue."

To obtain the requisite information for the period subsequent to the date of the returns made to this office, the collectors of the principal ports were directed to make immediate reports. Copies of their replies are transmitted herewith.

It appears that at the ports of Philadelphia and Baltimore there have been no importations of printing paper, and consequently no revenue has been collected therefrom.
